MINISTRIES

Dear Friend,

We've been busy! Here's what we've been up to lately...

Aloha English Club

We mentioned this big push to start the new semester. It's doing well! We've had 11 brand new guests, all non-Christians, and many coming as friends of friends of friends. And the meetings are fun! People really practice their English, much more so than in a classroom. Friendships are blooming. Conversations about faith are unfolding naturally. So we feel we're really onto something. Keep praying for this outreach to attract many fresh faces towards the Lord.

May 1-6 Relief Trip

Ted took a team of 15 for five days of hard work, clearing rubble in a small town called Motoyoshi, about two hours north of Sendai. We helped the Miura family, whose house was destroyed, and helped a local Baptist church to deepen its connection to this family and the surrounding neighborhood. They were deeply impacted by our sincere love and old-fashioned hard work. All who went were touched, including five non-church friends that tagged along.

Hawaii Team Outreaches

A team of 17 landed in Japan on May 24, seven helping to do outreach with our Tokyo church, and ten others helping here in Yokohama. They always have such an impact on our kids, and bring a ton of guests to our church events. We're thankful for our Hawaii-side Every Nation family! This team was excellent, humble, hard-working and FUN! Ted gets crazy-busy whenever they're in town, but it's always worth it.

May 29-June 1 Relief Trip

Locals plus Hawaiians, 29 in all, traveled north to serve for a three day stretch, which was every bit as memorable as the earlier one. We dug mud and debris out of an old folks' home in Minami-Sanriku that is being turned into a community center. We helped the Tsuda family in Ishinomaki to clear an unbelievable mountain of debris from their back yard. And we dug nasty-smelling sludge from clogged road-side drains to bless the neighborhood. Yuck. Pew. Uggh. But so worth it.

The relief efforts will continue for months and maybe years. So far our group of churches has sent 12 truckloads of relief supplies and 4 teams of hands-on volunteers. We'll put a lot of photos on the back of this letter, just to help you feel a part of it all, because you really are.

Changing Japan... together!

Ted's First Relief Trip, May 1-6 Motoyoshi

Motoyoshi area devastation

Sorting debris

Go, boys! Lots to do!

Someone did their best to "estimate" the risk areas

Wheelbarrow, in Japanese, is "ichirinsha" – which is also the name for unicycle

The van ride each morning was lively. We yelled "surprise" when anticipating a big bump!

Main pic is Miura family yard now. Inset pic shows the houses before the tsunami

Prayer on the Miura property with the family

Ted's Second Relief Trip, May 29-June 1 Minami-Sanriku and Ishinomaki

Minami-Sanriku: 10,000 missing from this one town!

Helping to convert an old folks home to a community center

Our team of 29 was able to attack about 7 rooms like this!

Morning devotions

Main pic is Tsuda yard 80% cleared. Top left is after we finished!

Clearing mud and sludge from the gutters was tough on the back, but more so on the nose!

Eating lunch in front of typical Ishinomaki scenery

Prayer with the team and some families that live near Mr. Tsuda

Last-minute add-in. Baptism photo's! 13 took the plunge on June 11th!!!
