Dear Friend,

God is not mad at you, He's mad about you!

This is what we've been sharing, preaching, explaining, and spreading at UH these past couple of months in a teaching series called Mad Love.

Little by little, they're getting it! God's love is crazy, personal, radical, and real. He delights in our prayers and flat out enjoys us. And He desires the same radical love in return. When believers catch this revelation, that's when the faith walk gets exciting!

On the home front, the kids have been wanting a dog since our days in Japan, and it finally happened. We adopted our little Lhasa Apso named "Koko" after her owner was unable to care for her. Woo hoo!

Snapshots of ministry and outreach...

Former UH quarterback & good friend Gregg Tipton visited and preached a great word for us in September. We had 37 in attendance that day at our new 10:30am service, geared towards young adults.

Connect Group: Building relationship, making disciples.

Spreading the madness!
